RADICAL HOODOOS IN COUNCIL.

Their Decision of the Question of White Enfranchisement.

From the Nashville Banner of the 14th instant we learn that towards the close of the proceedings of the Hoodoo Council recently held in Nashville, Mr. Tomeny offered the following preamble and resolution:

WHEREAS, The existing franchise law of this State is a part and parcel of the Constitution of Tennessee, and cannot be amended except in the mode prescribed in the constitution for making amendments, and

Whereas, In the opinion of this convention it would be safe, expedient and wise on the part of the Republican party of the State to initiate measures to modify the franchise law so as to give the right of suffrage to every citizen of the State and of the United States, and

Whereas, We believe that such magnanimous action of the Republican party would do much to restore repose and tranquility to the State, encourage fraternal feeling of good will among the whole people, soften the asperities of the pending canvass, and lessen the expenses of the State in maintaining peace and order everywhere; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we recommend that the Legislature at its present session do adopt and submit to the people for ratification two amendments to the Constitution, one extending the right of suffrage to all white men in Tennessee, who are citizens of the State and of the United States, and another providing that the right of colored men to vote in all elections shall never be abridged, denied or taken away.

The effect produced by the reading of this resolution is thus described by the reporter of the Banner:

The reading of the preamble and resolution called forth a tremendous howl of loyal disapprobation. In that crowd, at least, rebel enfranchisement was at an enormous discount. Not a man on the floor dared say a word in its favor. Despite the honeyed words of specious legislators, the real sentiment of the party was here revealed in a manner that was not to be mistaken.

Arnell, the Confederate tanner, jumped to his feet with an eager glitter in his snakey eyes, moved to lay the resolution on the table.

Another delegate, a thieving, foul-mouthed scoundrel with whose name we will not sully our columns, yelled out, "And I move to kick the resolution under the table."

Cagle, who claims to represent Dickson county, cried, in a burst of loyal ecstacy, "No! let's lay it on the table and sing 'Rally Round the Flag, Boys,'" but the rebel leather contractor's motion was put and carried. Two or three voices were feebly raised in the negative, but they were greeted with such yells of derision and contempt that their owners were glad enough to subside into obscurity and silence.

This means war to the knife and the knife to the hilt. Let it come. We are prepared.

Ladies as Fast Drivers.

A New York correspondent writes: Long Branch, Newport and Saratoga have drawn off most of our belles and fashionables, but a good many are still in town, and you may see them any pleasant afternoon driving through the park. It is no longer improper for ladies to handle the ribbons. It was considered improper a few years ago, but we have outgrown that idea, and some of the finest equipages now to be seen in the park are guided by the wives and daughters of our millionaires. They handle the reins with as much skill as any old coachman, and dash over the drives with as much nonchalance as though they were born to the whip. After 4 o'clock p.m, any afternoon, except Sunday, they throng the park as thick as "leaves in Vallambrosa," and seem to be as delighted with their distinction (for everybody looks at them) as though fast driving was the highest honor that woman could aspire to. Women, whose husbands are eminent in every business and profession, take their daily drive behind a pair of fancy trotters, with the ribbons in their own hands, while the husbands, perhaps, are sweltering in their offices down town, or lying off for a little rest at the club. It costs nearly as much now to supply a fashionable woman with horses and vehicles for her own particular use as to keep and clothe a family. These ladies who show off in the park are ladies of fine taste in horse flesh, (not for masticulation, though), and if their husbands show any reluctance to giving them something superior, they are pretty sure to make things unpleasant. No one would ever think of questioning their respectability, of course; but somehow, when they get mixed up with the demi-monde in the park, it is not easy to tell "t'other from which." In dress and manner and looks (they all have rather a fast air), there is not much difference between the good and the other sort, and unless you are well posted you may get them confused. Mrs. Tenforty, for instance, may drive past Mrs. Dashaway, with whom her husband is very well acquainted, and they are so much alike in their get up that you would never suspect one to be better than the other. But I am getting on delicate ground and must sheer off.

—The strike among the coal miners in the Shenango valley continues, and causes a slight advance in coal in New York.

TENNESSEE.

—Col. Wm. P. Bryan, of Nashville, died on Wednesday night last.

—Nashville is to have a park. The city has purchased forty-six and a half acres of land belonging to Hugh McGavock, which is situated in North Nashville, for the purpose.

—A shooting affray came off at Springfield on Thursday morning, resulting in the wounding of Joseph Pepper. Brown, a merchant, made dishonorable proprosals to Pepper's sister, for which the latter cowhided Brown. While laying on the whip, Pepper was shot, it is hoped not fatally.

—The Knoxville Press and Herald, of Thursday, says:

"On Tuesday last, two negro men were shot and killed in Hawkins county, East Tennessee, by Mr. I. Willis, who killed the wretch Sizemore, some twelve months since. It appears that these negroes went to the house of Mr. Willis, during his absence, and demanded something to eat of his mother and sister. Their demand was refused, when they made their way in, against the protest of the ladies, and proceeded to help themselves to what they wanted. When Willis came, they were sitting at the table, enjoying themselve having driven away the ladies by certain characteristic and brutally offensive remarks. Few words sufficed to explain the situation, when he passed into another apartment, procured a double-barrelled shot gun, and returned to the dining-room where the negroes were feasting. One started up, and being shot by Willis, fell dead across the table; the other ran out, but was shot and killed when barely past the threshold."

MISSISSIPPI.

A few nights ago near Bankston, Choctaw county, several citizens went to a negro cabin to arrest a negro man who had grossly insulted a lady. Entering the cabin, the head of John Weaver, one of the party, wassplit wide open with an ax, killing him instantly. Another, B. McCafferty, received a fatal blow in the shoulder. Wm. Mullens received a blow in the back part of the head, and Thos. Poenick was knocked down with a stick. One negro was killed.

—The Holly Springs Reporter of the 14th says that a detail of soldiers was sent out recently to capture the parties who murdered Wm. Tyre and George McCulley in Lafayette county. The soldiers were fired upon on Tuesday evening as they were marching along the road, and two of them slightly wounded. The wounded were returned to Holly Springs on Wednesday. The remainder of the detail are still in Lafayette, endeavoring to arrest the murderers of Tyre and McCulley.

—The same paper says of crops: An abundance of corn will be raised—enough for nearly two years' consumption. Corn is now heavy on the market in Holly Springs at fifty cents a bushel. Cotton looks well and promises better. Marshall will make a good report when the market opens. She not only expects to "lead off" with the $250 bale, but she pledges herself to keep in the front rank, if not ahead of it.

—Barbecues seem to be all the rage now. We hear of them in every section of the county. On Tuesday a magnificent one was given at Byhalia, on Wednesday at Waterford, and on yesterday at Chulahoma. The occasions were of great interest.

THE following editorial slander is taken from the Warrick Herald, a Radical sheet published in Indiana:

GRANT VS. JEWDOM.

The Evansville Courier is trying to make capital against Gen. Grant because he would not let Jewish army thieves and blockade runners carry on their unlawful trafficking unmolested. The Jews, as a class, are distinguished preeminently above all other people for their characteristic dishonesty and thieving propensities. It is a part of their faith to prey upon and rob Christians. After having violated every military law pertaining to trade in the Department of Tennessee during the war, Gen. Grant banished them from the department and forbid them ever returning to it. We say good.

The Jews are all Democrats anyhow. We never heard of a Jewish soldier during the war on either side. They did not care an itinerant tinker's cuss now the war terminated. Their object was to make money out of it. They formed mainly the myriads of army vultures that preyed constantly and mercilessly on the poor, half naked, hungry soldiers. For every Republican Jew that, by the sort of reasoning adopted by the Courier and other similar journals, is induced to vote against Grant, a dozen decent, honest, Christian white men will be induced to vote for him.

Let the good work go on.

Extraordinary Eclipse.

The total eclipse of the sun, which is to take place on Tuesday next, will present such a long duration of darkness that astronomers are anticipating it with unusual interest. From near Aden the central line of the eclipse extends to the southern coast of New Guinea, crossing Hindoostan, the Bay of Bengal, the Malsyan-peninsula and the Gulf of Siam on the way; and at certain places on this line the duration of total darkness will be at 6:36. At the date in question the moon will not be more than six hours from its perigee, while the sun will not be far from its apogee; a two-fold condition which increases the apparent diameter of the moon, and shows the apparent diameter of the sun, nearly at the smallest. Hence the prolonged darkness. Such a chance occurs but rarely, and we cannot wonder that a strong desire exists to make the most of it in endeavors to solve certain highly important questions in physical science. Unluckily, the southwest monsoon will be at its full blast on the 10th of August, which, with its heavy clouds, will render observation either uncertain or impossible, except on the eastern side of the mountain ranges.

Nod Worshipers.

The following rules and hints are respectfully submitted for the benefit of whom it may concern:

1. It is an improper manner of performing this duty to nod, and for the plain reason that the worshiper attracts too much attention. We are everywhere taught to avoid ostentatious display in our worship. The Pharisees were condemned for praying at corners of streets, that they might be seen of men. On the same principle, the worshiper is condemned, for he is making too public a display of his devotions.

2 Nor is it proper to snore in the performance of his duty—partly for the foregoing reasons, but mainly because it is a direct infraction of the golden rule. Suppose, for instance, that your next door neighbor is asleep; by your snoring he will be disturbed, probably awakened. This is not doing unto others as you would that they should do for you.

3. It is wrong to injure one's health while offering worship; and all physicians admit that to sleep with the head thrown back and the mouth wide open, is liable to produce sore throat and hoarseness. Besides, flies sometimes get into the mouth on such occasions, and by their injurious explorations tickle the delicate membranes and cause horrible sternutations and coughing, which is very injurious to health.

4. To sleep with the head resting on the arms of the worshiper, and the face buried up in the cuffs of the coat, is the most improper way of offering sleep worship. First, because it is also injurious to health, and mainly, because it is a direct violation of the Scriptures, which command us to let our light so shine that men may profit by our example. In this case it is impossible to know whether the Christian worshiper is asleep or awake. It is a positive case of lukewarmness; neither the one thing or the other.

—Canada is bestiring herself to prevent the introduction of the cattle disease in that country.

—The internal revenue receipts continue to average about $500,000 per day.

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

ALBERT PIKE & CO.

Vera Atque Honesta Dicere.

THE GREAT DECENCY OF TENNESSEE RADICALISM.

What Manner of Candidates Tennessee Jacobinism Prefers.

Robespierre was styled "The Incorruptible." Marat lived and died poor, and was never suspected of peculation. Legendre, the butcher, did not despoil the Commonwealth. After all, American Jacobinism is but a pinchbeck imitation of the original, making of Thad. Stevens a Saint, and of Ben Butler a Chevalier Bayard.

On the 13th inst. a Jacobin Convention assembled at Nashville with Horace Maynard for its President, a man who pretends to an extraordinary degree of Christian piety, and, except when he condescends to slander a political opponent, to all the self-possession of a mind conscious of its rectitude.

In that Convention it was proposed to nominate candidates for the place of member of Congress for the State at large, and upon this a negro put in nomination the name of Thomas A. Hamilton, of the county of Shelby.

Upon that, J. M. Tomeny, of Shelby county, rose to speak as to certain facts relative to this candidate, and was called to order by one Williams, of Smith county, because he proposed to make a personal attack on one of the candidates. But the President decided, as he had decided before, that "any remarks respecting the candidates" were in order; and Mr. Tomeny proceeded, pledging his "honor and reputation" to sustain by proof the facts stated by him, if they should be denied. He said this:

It is doubtless known to every member of this Convention who reads the dispatches published yesterday morning, that Mr. Thomas A. Hamilton, of my county, who has been placed in nomination for member of Congress for the State at large, has been indicted by the Grand Jury of the Criminal Court of Memphis for the crime of perjury. And, sir, I believe that a jury of his countrymen and his peers, upon hearing the evidence and ascertaining the facts, will pronounce him guilty of the charge. Gentlemen of the Convention, I want you to understand the facts before proceeding to give your votes for such a nomination.

Sirs, it is a notorious fact to those who have lived in Memphis throughout the rebellion, that in 1861-2 Mr. Hamilton did accept and exercise the functions of the office of Sub-Provost Marshal, under Colonel McKissick; that he seized sugar in the hands of loyal and disloyal men alike, and caused the same to be moved out to the bluff and piled up ready to be destroyed on the approach of the Union army. I, sirs, lived in Memphis all through the war; have known Mr. Hamilton for eight or ten years, and I know what I state to be true. As a Confederate Sub-Provost Marshal, with the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, he seized sugar in stores, warehouses and cellars; had it moved out to the bluff and piled up to be burned, to prevent its falling into the hands of the Federal army. This he continued to do without regard to the loyalty or disloyalty of the owners up to the time of the occupation of Memphis by our troops. For his official acts, gentlemen of this Convention, I would not censure him; but, sirs, after the capture of Memphis by our troops, he deserted from the Confederacy, skulked behind Federal fortifications and bayonets, sold the same sugar seized for the Confederate States as his property, and put the proceeds into his pocket.

I know, gentlemen, you will be skeptical, but remember I pledge my honor and my reputation concerning all I say. I know the facts. Every man who has lived at Memphis during the rebellion knows them. A suit was brought in the United States Court at Memphis against Mr. Hamilton, by Dr. A. J. Park, of Chicago, for the value of sugar taken from him, and the proof on the trial showed conclusively that Mr. Hamilton, after the fall of Memphis, had sold the sugar seized from Park, and had appropriated the proceeds to his own use.

The proof, I say, was clear and conclusive. A judgment was rendered against Mr. Hamilton, and he compromised with Dr. Park by paying two thousand dollars, and, sirs, the gentleman who arranged that compromise between the parties is on the floor of this Convention. The record of that proceeding cannot be erased, and is open to the inspection of all who are skeptical. This is but one of many cases.

Mr. Tomeny said, also, "I don't expect in a few minutes to overcome the wire-working and scheming of months." These facts, he said, had been time and again charged against Mr. Hamilton, and never denied; and he added, "I AM PERSONALLY AND FAMILIARLY ACQUAINTED WITH THEM."

John Brownlow endeavored to show that the matter deserved no consideration, because the Grand Jury that had indicted Hamilton was composed of rebels.

We do not indorse any charge against Mr. Hamilton. We only reproduce here the allegations of a prominent member of his own party, of one of whom we once had some hope that he would see the error of his ways; but of whom we have hope no longer.

It is certain that Hamilton has been indicted by the Grand Jury, for taking what he ordinarily called the candidate's oath, which no man can take without committing perjury, if he ever held any office under the Confederate Government, or sympathized with the Confederate cause, or gave it aid and comfort in any way whatever. It is certain that Hamilton has twice taken that oath—once in Massachusetts, and once here, preparatory, each time, to being a candidate here.

When he was sued in the United States Circuit Court for the value of sugars seized by him, he pleaded (as we have it direct from the plaintiff's counsel), that he was an officer of, or acting in the service of the Confederate Government, and as such seized the sugars. The plaintiff assured him that he would at once dismiss the suit if he would show that he accounted to the Confederate Government for the proceeds of the sugar. He did not do so. A single juror saved him from a verdict and a judgment for some sixty thousand dollars; and he afterwards effected a compromise. Of the influences that swayed that single person, we should, if we are rightly informed, be sorry to speak.

It is entirely just to measure the excellence or baseness, the honesty or scoundrelism of a party by the merit or worthlessness of its candidates. Not because we have a right to argue that a party will almost always select men to be its candidates, who represent it not only in opinions, but in its very character and nature; but because the candidate is the fruit, of which the party is the tree. The party adopts his acts as its own, and announces its own nature by making him its representative.

Notwithstanding the charges made by Mr. Tomeny, the Jacobin Convention preferred and accepted Mr. Hamilton, the nominee of the negro, to be its candidate for Congress. Although he stands indicted for perjury, and charged with robbery of individuals for his private profit, and defrauding the Confederate Government, which trusted and employed and somewhat honored him, he is deemed by Tennessee Radicalism, under the lead of Maynard, to be a fit and marvellously proper representative of itself: and yet we may certainly say, that no decent and respectable party of honest men, would any more accept for candidate and Representative, a man indicted of perjury, and charged openly with defrauding the Government to which he had sworn to be true, and robbing private citizens of their property, than a gentleman would marry a woman whose reputation was tainted with the open imputation of dishonor.

"Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them."

So saith the word of God; and adds this sentence: "Every tree that bringth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the fire."

We do not think that it has ever before happened, in the United States, that a Convention representing any respectable portion of the people, has nominated for high office a man under indictment of felony, and liable to immediate arrest, knowing the fact that the indictment had been found. We need not say that it never happened before, when a member of the Convention vouched, on his own knowledge, for the truth of facts sufficient to convict, and the accuser's word was entitled to the least credit.

If this had been done in a ward of a great city, reeking with the pestilential corruptions of political and moral contagion, it would not be half so significant as when it occurs in an agricultural State like Tennessee, with no great cities, and inhabited by a brave, hardy, frank, manly, generous, honest and uncorrupted people. That such a people should be expected to elect to a seat in a body like the Congress of the United States a man so under at least a cloud of suspicion, who certainly was an agent of the Confederate States, and in that capacity gave them aid and comfort; and who certainly has sworn that he never did so; and who is accused of having sold for his own benefit, and pocketed the proceeds of, sugars taken from individuals, to a very large amount, is an alarming and appalling fact to any one who has studied the history of the fall of the Republics of the old world, and how short-lived they have proven in the new.

We appealed, a few days ago, to the masses of the Union men of Tennessee, to consider how little interest they personally have in the disfranchisement of eighty thousand of their brethren, as honest and brave as they, and like them, born on the soil of their State. We begged them to consider what manner of men it is that they have set in the high places of the State, and how far such men are worth looking for and being proud of as chiefs and leaders. We who were Whigs, were all proud once, of Henry Clay, and perhaps sometimes, out of our great love and admiration for him, followed his white plume too far. Tennesseeans then were proud of the men who led the opposing hosts of Whigs and Democrats who met in generous conflict on the field of debate, and won reputation and honor by their appeals to the reason as well as to the passions and sympathies of immense audiences. Are even the lanequenets of Jacobinism, the scribblers who earn their weekly stipends by violating all the courtesies that gentlemen observe, by the reiteration of stale lies, and all the baser ways of defamation and depravation, are even these proud, of Stokes and Mullins and Brownlow? Are they proud of Arnell and Ryder, of Smith and Hunter and Lewis, as statesmen and leaders of the people? We speak only of the intellectual stature of these men. Are they of the race of giants? Do they rise even to a respectable mediocrity? What would they be in a country like France or England, where intellect rules and learning has respect?

And if the hired apologists for the enormities of Jacobinism are infatuated with these men, as Titania, by the malice of Oberon, was with the long ears and ass' head of Nick Bottom the Weaver, are the people so? God forbid!

But it is within the compass of possibility for these men to be admired. No one can account for the queer vagaries of the human mind. Jack Cade headed a formidable insurrection, and Masaniello for a time ruled Naples. But is it possible that any people can be gratified at the selection of such a man as Hamilton is alleged by one of his own party to be, to receive their votes for a seat in Congress? Is this nomination one of the first fruits of negro suffrage, one of the eggs of the cockatrice?

TENNESSEE.

—One of the burglars who recently robbed the safe of the Express office at Franklin of $600 and a watch was captured and lodged in the jail at that place last night.

—Cars on the Knoxville and Charleston railroad ran into Marysville yesterday. Judge Jones, President of the Company, took the Grand Jury over to Maryville on an excursion.

—Jas. A. Aydelott, who recently shot and killed a young lawyer named J. C. Holt, in self-defense, at Tullahoma, has undergone a preliminary examination before Justices G. W. Davidson, J. S. Payne and J. M. Gray, and been honorably acquitted.

—The Banner, of Saturday, says: The House Committee on Military Affairs are taking "testimony" with regard to the Kuklux organization. A witness from Giles County was examined yesterday. He noticed that all he said about the conduct of the whites was carefully recorded, but that no such attention was paid to statements with regard to the negroes.

—On Tuesday night last, during the storm, a loving couple were united in marriage by Esquire John T. Hudgins, near Maryville. The names of the parties were Elvin O'Neal and Levina Rose, and we are informed that it was something of a runaway match, the parents of the bride not being aware of the circumstance till next day.

—We learn from the Nashville Banner of Saturday that a Radical in that city was told by a State Senator that the Legislature would authorize the Governor to call out the militia, and that it would be done so soon as that body adjourned. Companies and regiments were to be organized and held in readiness for active service. They are not to receive pay unless actively engaged in the field.

—We clip the following from the West Tennessee Whig. Similar accounts come to us from every direction—with an occasional grumble of course—planters cannot live without grumbling: A gentleman of this city, who has just returned from an extended tour in all the counties of West Tennessee, reports the condition of the crops, both corn and cotton, to be the most promising ever known to our farmers.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, August 16.—The base ball match yesterday, between the Louisiana Club and the Empire Club, of this city, resulted in the defeat of the latter. Scores 36 to 11.

BOSTON.

BOSTON, August 16.—In Laconia, N. H., to-day, G. W. Roberts, charged with bigamy, committed suicide by hanging himself in jail.

A man named Rafferty was run over and killed by a railroad train in East Cambridge last night.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 16.—Receipts from internal revenue, all sources, from July 14th to date, are twenty-five millions eight hundred and thirty thousand dollars.

Over two hundred applications have already been filed for appointments as Supervisors under the spirits and tobacco revenue laws, some of which were addressed to the Secretary of the Treasury and others to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Other parties have prepared similar applications, to be presented after the return of Mr. Rollins to Washington.

Mrs. Trumbull, wife of Senator Trumbull, died this morning.

NASHVILLE.

NASHVILLE, August 16.—Last night a party of masked horsemen, some fifteen in number, rode into Franklin, Williamson county, and broke open the door of the store of a Prussian Jew named Burfield, a Radical. Burfield, as soon as he saw the masks, attempted to escape by flight. He was fired upon and fell dead, pierced by five bullets. Lawrence Bowman, colored, Burfield's clerk, was shot. He ran off, but was found during the night in a lot where he had taken refuge, mortally wounded. He died this morning. Burfield's body has been brought here for burial. Who the maskers were, or whether they were supported by others, is not known. The affair occurred just after the close of a circus exhibition, and many people were on the streets, some of whom interfered, but could not prevent the assassination. It has created intense feeling in Franklin, and is denounced by all classes.

BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 16.—The Chinese Embassy paid a formal visit to this city yesterday. They were met at Niagara Falls Depot by the Mayor and President of the Board of Trade, who took charge of and escorted them in carriages to view the grain elevators, foundries, etc., of the city. They were also sumptuously entertained at the private residences of leading citizens of the Buffalo Club House, etc. In the afternoon, one of the fastest steamers of the Erie Railroad Line having been placed at their disposal, they were taken out on the lake for an excursion, escorted by another steamer. When opposite Fort Porter, the boats were stopped and the Embassy was honored with an international salute from the fort.

There not being sufficient time to return to the city to take the train for Niagara Falls, the steamer Wabash steamed down to Tonawanda, to intercept the train. Here an unfortunate accident occurred to Sun Tyan, Assistant Embassador. While crossing a rickety old wharf, he was precipitated by a loose plank through the wharf into deep water; he seized a plank and kept himself afloat until a deck-hand of the steamer Wabash swam to his assistance. A rope was passed to him by the same, by which he was raised to the wharf.

SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 16.—Advices from Yokohama, Japan, to the 24th of July say that on the afternoon of the 4th of July an attack was made by twenty thousand Southerners on Tokagowa, at Yeddo, about 1,000 strong. The Southerners were repulsed, but renewed the attack next day, when Tokagowa was entirely routed. Half of Yeddo, including two large temples, one of them the residence of Ulia, was burnt down. At Fichigo, about eighteen miles south of Osaca, a terrible battle was fought between the forces of Aidzu and Satsunea. The latter were defeated with great loss. Aidzu declared his intention of withdrawing and ordered his Generals to go home and remain neutral. Satsunea's party issued a proclamation, in the name of Mikado, condemning all native Christians to death. Several have been executed at Nagasuki. Seudai is within sixteen miles of Yeddo. It is stated that the Northern Princes have made a proposition to refer the settlement of affairs to England, France and the United States, in case the latter powers accept the responsibility.

Port Alaska, on the west coast, is partially opened. North German and Italian ministers are there, but other ministers are not sanctioned yet, on grounds of not being safe and liable to some troubles, as at Osacca.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 16.—A wealthy lady died last week in Clarkeston, Westchester county, and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, under suspicious circumstances. Her body has been exhumed, and is being analyzed by a chemist. It is hinted that her husband was interested pecuniarily in her death, and hence the investigation which is being made under the auspices of her relations. The property left by her is valued at about $150,000.

A special Washington dispatch states that soon after the adjournment of Congress requisitions were received at the War Department from the Governors of several of the reconstructed States, for arms to equip State militia, it seeming to be understood that the Secretary of War could fill requisitions under the provisions of the act of 1795. Secretary Schofield has, however, notified applicants that no arms could be issued to the militia under the act mentioned, and further legislation would be necessary before arms could be furnished.

About 9 o'clock last evening Jacob Stillwagon, who keeps a German boarding house at No. 615 East Fourteenth street, was dangerously stabbed by John Seibert, an intoxicated laborer who mistook the house for a lager beer saloon, and who was enraged at being refused a glass of lager, and being expelled from the premises on becoming noisy. Seibert was arrested.

DARING AND ATROCIOUS ROBBERY.

An Express Messenger Chloroformed and Robbed---The Robbers Escape with $7000.

From the St. Louis Times of the 15th.]

One of the boldest and most barefaced robberies committed for many years was perpetrated yesterday morning on Second street. About nine o'clock Josiah Cross, money messenger for Adams' Express Company, started out on his customary duty of delivering money packages. When he left the office, on Main and Chestnut streets, he had over $7000 in his possession, in packages adressed to various parties. He delivered a few, and found that the next one in order was addressed to B. F. Goodrich & Co., No. 119 North Second street. Entering the office, he found two men, one writing at a desk and the other reading a newspaper. Holding in one hand the envelope addressed to this firm, and purporting to contain $147 70, he inquired of the gentleman at the desk if he was Mr. Goodrich, and receiving an affirmative answer, handed it to him. His duty performed, he turned to leave the room, when he was suddenly seized by the person who had been reading, and a piece of white muslin saturated with chloroform was held across his mouth and beneath his nose. He at once comprehended his situation, and found that he had been decoyed by a brace of swindlers and scoundrels into a room for the purpose of robbery. He exercised all the powers of resistance at command, and struggled with the villain who still retained his grasp. In the struggle he gained the use of his tongue, and called out lustily for help, and though many persons in the vicinity heard a scuffling and other noise, no one came to his relief, and he struggled on till he had abott gained the mastery, when the other man arose and dealt him a blow on the head with a bar of iron, repeating the operation several times, until he sunk to the floor from unconsciousness. Unobserved in their operations, the scoundrels then rifled Cross' satchel of its valuable contents and made good their escape, but by what entrance or what direction they took no one could tell.

In a short time the old gentleman came to, and partially remembering what had occurred, he rose, and with empty satchel in hand, rushed into the street, shook it, while he looked in vain in all directions for the thieves. He then reported the fact of his loss to his employers, who called in a physician and had his wounds, three in number, properly dressed, when he was sent to his home at Carondelet, in a somewhat precarious condition. Cross has been employed by the Adams Express Company for a number of years, and enjoys the fullest respect and esteem of his employers.

The manner in which this robbery was carried out shows conclusively that it was a settled plan, arranged in advance. Some three or four days since a man giving his name as B. F. Goodrich hired a store in the second story of 119 South Second street, of Mr. Papin, and immediately took possession. In order to make some show of business, he had several pieces of cardboard painted with the name of the new and important business firm of B. F. Goodrich & Co., which he tacked up in the passage and on the stairway of the building. He next invested in six wooden chairs, a rather cheap table, and an old fashioned desk, at which he sat yesterday morning, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Cross, that he might spring upon and rob him of funds in his possession. The matter is now in the hands of the police, but no clue is had to the whereabouts of the thieves.

In former times it was a practice with the merchants to give five gallons good liquor for the first Bale new Cotton. REDUCTION
—OF—
INSURANCE RATES.
THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE Board of Underwriters, by authority of the Board, have amended the Marine and Inland Tariff of Rates, to take effect August 15, 1868, as follows:
From Memph's to the Following Ports, and Vice Versa:
WHITE RIVER PORTS (STEAMBOAT).
Augusta or below.....1
Jacksonport or above Augusta.....1½
Batesville or above Jacksonport.....2
All Points on Little Red River.....1½
All Points on Black River.....2
ARKANSAS RIVER PORTS (STEAMBOAT).
Pine Bluff or below.....1
Little Rock or above Pine Bluff.....1½
Lewisburg or above Little Rock.....2½
Fort Smith or above Lewisburg.....3
Little Rock, via Levall's Bluff (steamboat and rail).....3½
The Tariff of Rates to all other points remain unchanged.
Rebate, hereafter, to Merchants only, 15 per cent.
The Merchants of Memphis who, through the Chamber of Commerce, have so earnestly requested rates conforming to those of New Orleans will find upon examination that the above are as low as the New Orleans "down" rates to any point, and the rates to Pine Bluff and Augusta, including all points below them, are considerably below the New Orleans tariff.
E. R. SYLVESTER,

JOHN AINSLIE,
Business Manager.

THE CHURCHES, so far as we have been able to learn, were all well attended yesterday.

DROWNED.—A negro boy was drowned yesterday afternoon, in attempting to cross the river in a dugout.

SECOND DISTRICT.—There were nine arrests made in this district up to six o'clock yesterday afternoon.

THE weather yesterday was again sunshine and shadow. About one o'clock it sprinkled, and for a little while seemed to promise rain in abundance.

THE Steamboatmen's Seymour and Blair Club meets at Stillman Hall this evening. Col. Douglas and other speakers are to address them. Ladies are respectfully invited.

CLOSING Auction Bankrupt Sale to-day at 10 o'clock at No. 195 Main street. Drugs, fluid extracts, patent medicines, tinctures, demijohns, etc.; also one very fine fire-proof safe. W. Y. CRODE, Assignee.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.—We learn that as Mr. M. Combs, Jr., was putting away a Smith & Wesson repeater on Saturday night, it exploded, and the ball was lodged in his leg, making a severe and painful wound.

ASSAULT.—Stephen Williams, a negro, got on the rampage yesterday, and assaulted another negro, whose name we could not learn, cutting him severely with a large pocket knife. The bellicose Stephen was arrested and lodged in the Causey street station. He will have a hearing this morning.

PERSONAL.—Lee Crandall, Esq., of New Orleans, is at present in the city.

Adolph Pieton, Esq., of the Diamond Freight Line, passed through our city yesterday on a visit to his old home—Mobile.

Capt. John A. Williams, of the Paris True Kentuckian, is at the Overton. We are sorry to learn that the Captain is ill, and is now on his way to the Arkansas Hot Springs, where we hope he will soon find renewed health.

THE COUNTY JAIL.—Are white visitors admitted to visit this institution? We understand that two gentlemen applied to the guard for permission to look round it yesterday, and were refused. While they stood speaking to the guard "Dr." Toles and a negro wench came out, thanked the guard and expressed themselves "very much pleased at the way things were carried on." These pampered minions of the County Commissioners are growing more insolent every day.

MORITZ WOLFF.—A friend of this gentleman requests us to say that the reports which were given to the press in regard to his arrest and imprisonment were in some items erroneous. The last time that Mr. Wolff was burned out is nearly two years since; and as the insurance companies promptly adjusted the losses, is it but fair to suppose that he was not to blame in the affair. Mr. Wolff is confident of being able to show that the present charge is purely malicious. As to his not having given bail, at his preliminary examination, it was not because he was not able to do so, had it been allowed, but arson is not a bailable offense—hence the failure to give the bond.

BETTER THAN GOLD.—In these exciting times when "clubs are trumps," and politics engross the attention of all classes of our citizens, it would be well for prudent men to remember that something more than the "pomp and pride of glorious" campaigning in the country's cause is necessary to complete the happiness of home, by placing the wife and little ones above grim and craving want, while they have the energy and means to accomplish that object without any perceptible outlay of capital, by insuring their lives in the most liberal Company in the country. For instance: a person aged twenty-five can insure his life in the Phœnix Mutual Life Insurance Company for $5000 for about $190 yearly, one-half of which is taken in note (and which in case of death is never deducted from the policy), leaving only about $50 payable in cash—and even that amount can be paid semi-annually. Who would not place his family beyond the contingency of want in case of early death when it can be so cheaply done? Call at No. 16 Jefferson street and obtain pamphlets and memoranda from Messrs. Nourse & Mathews, the General Agents, which should satisfy you that they represent one of the best Companies in the city.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—Yesterday morning about 7½ o'clock, the police of the First district arrested a young man named W. H. Warren, on charge of stealing a couple of horses from Marshall county, Miss., bringing them to this city and disposing of them. It appears that Warren, who is a most genteel and respectable looking young man, has been at work for some months past in Marshall county. His employer, having implicit faith in him, sent him on Friday, in company with another young man to Colliersville, both mounted on good horses. On arriving at Colliersville, Warren succeeded in making his companion drunk, and while he was in a state of intoxication, took both horses and left Colliersville and came to this city. Meanwhile the telegraph had been put in operation, and the police were on the lookout for him. Yesterday morning a man came to Forrest's stable and left a horse, and wished to raise twenty dollars on it. This excited suspicion, and the police were informed. On examination the man and horse both answered the description forwarded, and he was arrested. He is now in durance, and will have a preliminary examination this morning.

CENTRAL DEMOCRATIC CLUB OF SHELBY COUNTY.

Meeting Saturday Night.

The regular weekly meeting of the Central Democratic Club of Shelby county took place at Stillman Hall on Saturday night. The hall was quite filled with the members and visitors, a large portion of the latter being ladies. At 8½ o'clock the meeting was called to order by the President, Gen. Albert Pike. The reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting was dispensed with, and the Club proceeded to business. The following report was received from the Committee on Bluff and Stand:

To the President of the Democratic Central Club:

The committee appointed to obtain the consent of the Board of Aldermen to permit the Club to erect a stand and seats on the bluff have performed the duty, as far as was in their power. The Board of Aldermen have not met since the committee was appointed—hence no application could be made to them. The written consent, however, of the Mayor has been obtained, and several Aldermen spoken to, and no objection has been urged against the request being granted.

The expense of purchasing lumber and erecting the stand and seats would be about $120—all to be done in a rough but substantial manner, and suitable for the purposes in view; the quantity of seats erected to be equal to 1500 lineal feet; the lumber to be the property of the Club.

The committee report against the propriety of having gas lights, and suggests that oil lamps would be preferable on the score of convenience, economy, etc. They would cost, viz: two for stand, $7; and two for sides, with reflectors, $12—in all $19. Respectfully submitted.

A. NELSON, Chairman.

On motion, the report was received, and further action on it deferred until the next regular meeting.

Gen. Chalmers was then introduced, and made a stirring and eloquent address on the times and duties of the hour. At the close of which the following letter was received from G. W. Montague, Esq.:

COMMERCIAL HOTEL,
MEMPHIS, August 14, 1868.

To the members of the Central Democratic Club:

Gentlemen: Some time ago a suggestion, relative to advancing the interests of the Democratic party among the colored voters of this city and its vicinity, appeared in the editorial columns of the Avalanche. Being sincerely desirous of aiding in the great work of regeneration which has been inaugurated among them and disabusing their minds of the prejudices which have been inculcated by the false teachings of the Radical party, I conceived the idea of "getting up" a performance of a dramatic character, the proceeds of which were to be devoted to the forwarding of this object. On communicating my plan to the APPEAL that paper very properly suggested that I should make known my intention to the Central Club and await its action in the matter. It intimated that the Club would probably appoint a committee to act in conjunction with myself in arranging the business details of the same.

I would here state for the information of the Club that I am an actor by profession, and if it should see fit to adopt the plan which I have proposed that I will labor assiduously to make it a success.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully,
Your obed't ser't,
G. W. MONTAGUE.

The following resolution was thereupon offered and adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the Central Democratic Club of Shelby county accept the generous proposition of Mr. Montague, and that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to confer with him and arrange for the proposed entertainment.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Scruggs, Passmore and Chalmers on the committee.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. R. D. Baugh, P. M. Winters and R. A. Thompson, was appointed to secure colored speakers for colored meetings during the campaign.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That the Democracy of Shelby county hold a grand mass-meeting in this city on the —— of September next.

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of the President of each Democratic Club in the city be appointed to make all necessary arrangements for said mass-meeting.

Resolved, That a committee composed of Gen. Albert Pike, Hon. Wm. T. Avery and Col. M. C. Gallaway, be appointed to invite the following distinguished spokesmen to address said meeting: Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Hon. Ben. H. Hill and Hon. Howell Cobb, of Georgia; Gen. Wade Hampton, of South Carolina; Hon. John Young Brown, of Kentucky; Hon. George H. Pendleton, of Ohio; Hon. Thos. A. Hendricks and Hon. Dan. W. Voorhees, of Indiana; Gen. F. P. Blair, of Missouri, and such other gentlemen as to said committee may seem proper.

Resolved, By the Central Club of Shelby county, that we heartily and warmly ratify the nomination of John W. Leftwich as our candidate for Congress, and W. W. Vaughn as Elector from this District, and pledge ourselves to sustain them in the coming canvass, in word and deed.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Democracy of Shelby county are due and hereby tendered to Gen. J. F. Boyd and S. B. Jones, Superintendent of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad, and J. T. Flynn, Conductor, for the kind and courteous attention extended to our delegates to the late Brownsville Convention.

On motion the meeting adjourned till next Saturday night, at 8½ o'clock.

PLAYING POLICE.—Billy Baker, alias Cat-Fish, and Bill Jones, alias Red Shirt Bill, two black mackerels, were nabbed yesterday by officer Welch, on a charge of robbery and "playing policemen." On Saturday these two sable worthies saw a green country boy lounging about the levee, and watched him until they saw him lie down on a pile of boards to rest. Waiting until he had settled himself, one of the rascals stepped up and informed him that he was under arrest. "What for?" stammers Greeny. "Kase, we's officers!" and with this very Radical-Africo-Yankee-like reply, the twain proceeded to go through his pockets (therein showing that they were well skilled in Radical tactics, and were readers and admirers of the local columns of the Post). The disciples of Smith and Hamilton succeeded in finding $11 50—a good deal more money than any such fool ought ever have been trusted with. Red Shirt expressed dissatisfaction at the result of the search, and wanted to know of Greeny what he had in his boots—a bran new pair. Greeny answered, "nothing;" but with true innate Radical curiosity and thievishness, Red Shirt insisted on looking; so Greeny was compelled to pull off his boots. As soon as this was done, the two larks seized them and ran off, leaving Greeny moneyless and bootless, in which condition he made his way to the Adams street station, and entered a complaint, giving so accurate a description of the "colored policemen," as he called them, that Officer Welch was able to spot them immediately. Keeping his eyes open, as he always does, he saw the two worthies perambulating the levee yesterday morning, and pulled them. On telling them that they were wanted, Red Shirt commenced vehemently to deny that he had had anything to do "wid dat lock game—'twas dat udder feller. He jis looked on." This gave Welch the cue, and he also took them in on playing "the lock game." The two charges will be investigated this morning.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH.

"Buried in the Gray."

Many of our readers, who once followed the "meteor flag," and wore the gray, knew and well remember the subject of the following paragraph which we clip from the Nashville Gazette:

Augustus Carson, a respectable colored man, died at Franklin, Tenn., last Monday night. Early in the war he attached himself to the cause of the Confederacy and steadily followed its banners till the last of the struggle. Through good and evil report, whether the sun of victory shed light and hope upon the cause he served, or whether clouds of defeat lowered upon him and his associates in arms, he was ever brave, hopeful, and dauntless. When the cause was finally lost, he returned to his old home, and has since acted only with the Democratic party. During the illness which terminated in his death, Carson repeatedly expressed the wish that his body should be attired in a suit of Confederate gray, and that some of his old friends should attend his remains to their last resting place. His desire in both respects was fully carried out. His funeral was largely attended by the people of Franklin and its vicinity.

SUDDEN DEATH.—How often during the late heated term have we heard and written that little phrase, and how little meaning do we who write it and use it most attach to it! We do not believe it is necessary or wise to be ever thinking on the subject of our mortality. Life has its active duties, calling for a different exercise of our thoughts and faculties from day to day, and throughout the hours of the day, which would necessarily be neglected, were we to be eternally thinking of death—waiting for the mandate of the Coenobiarch. Our activity depends in a great measure on our hope of living, and not on our expectation of dying. But every one ought to be able to look at death calmly, as something that is not to be desired. This is the duty of the Christian. How is a man to live so as to die thus? This is a question which has been debated by saints, sophists and sages from the earliest dawn of philosophy and religion. Manifestly no man can meet the grizzly King of Terrors who knows that he has left undone one of the first duties of life—that of providing for those whom God has given him to care for. Can he leave the earth calmly and willingly as a Christian should, knowing its hardness, its lack of charity, its coldness, and yet entrust to its tender mercies those who are nearest and dearest to him? No! He must provide for them before he goes, and the only way for him to do this is by investing during life and health all the money that he can spare in a life insurance policy. THE ST. LOUIS MUTUAL, represented in this city by Messrs McMahon & Otis, No. 43 Madison street, is about the best institution we know of in which thus to invest.

T. A. HAMILTON.—We understand that a Deputy Sheriff left the city on Saturday to arrest and bring to this city for trial the "Honorable" T. A. Hamilton, M. C.—"would be" candidate, and perjurer. We hope he will bring him.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 15, 1868.

We would call the attention of our readers to the statement of City Finances in our local column. It was made up to the 30th of June, but its publication has been delayed, owing to the fact that a committee of citizens who were to examine into its correctness have taken unusual pains to go over the whole matter in order to give a just and accurate report, which necessarily consumed much time. The statement is a very favorable one, and justifies the confidence felt in our ability to pay off all indebtedness by capitalists abroad who have shown a desire to invest in our city bonds—$150,000 of which have been taken on Eastern account within the last two or three days. We cannot pass this matter by without expressing the hope that our authorities will instantly institute legal proceedings to collect the amounts due the city from delinquents of all classes. It will be a further evidence that the finances of the city are looked after with a vigilant eye. There is no reason whatever why any one, however large a property holder he may be, should be exempt from paying his dues to the corporation. We do not intend to let this matter rest until we have assurances that defaulters will be made to pay up, and we again call upon the proper authorities for the names of those who are behind hand that the public may know them.

Gold opened in New York at 146½, and closed at 146¾. We quote at 143@144 buying; selling at 145@145¼.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Sixes, prewar, 103; do 1881, 114; do '62, 113; do '64, 91; do '65, 111; do new issue, 8; do '67, 7½; 10-40s, coupons, 8½. Bonds dull; New Tennessee bonds, 63½.

Exchange is easy with our banks, and rates remain steady—the demand and supply being about equal. Loans to merchants are quite common, and discounts run from ½ to 1 per cent. per month.

There is a fair inquiry existing for City Bonds to-day at 50c, but nearly all offered at that price have been taken. We quote sales of $13,000 yesterday, and $7000 to-day at 50c. There may be a few small amounts which can yet be picked up at that figure, but very little.

Some orders for Mississippi Central bonds have been withdrawn from the market, but other parties are still anxious to buy at 60c for 1st mortgage and 40c for 2d mortgage. A sale of 100 shares of Memphis and Charleston Railroad bonds occurred at 53c with a disposition on the part of the buyer to take more at the same rate, but the sale mentioned was the only one we could learn of.

City Scrip is very quiet. Ledger balances are more in favor as they are more available. Parties holding them can check against them on the city in sums to suit, while most of the outstanding scrip is in large and unwieldy pieces. We quote the latter at 70c buying, and selling at 72@74c. Ledger balances buying at 71c; selling at 75@76c as to amount.

County Warrants are dull. Brokers vary, however, in their ideas about them. Some will pay no more than 60c, and sell at 65c, while others buy at 52@53c and sell at 56@57c.

In the State Legislature on Thursday, Senator Cate offered the following resolution which was adopted under a suspension of the rules, and its transmission to the House ordered:

Resolved by the Senate, the House concurring, That the Comptroller of the Treasury is hereby respectfully instructed not to pay any money out of the Treasury of the State to Railroad Receivers, for services rendered as such Receiver until said Receiver has made a full and complete settlement, and complied in every respect with the law of the State pertaining to their duty.

The stockholders in the Nashville and Chattanooga railroad brought their meeting to a close Wednesday, says the Nashville Dispatch of Thursday, by the election of the opposition board of directors by a majority of 1462. The new board consists of E. W. Cole, John M. Bass, G. M. Fogg, John Frizzell, E. L. Jordan, W. Hunter Smith, Thomas C. Whiteside, A. L. Landis, Anderson Powers, W. S. Huggins, John F. Anderson, John B. Hawkins, A. E. Patton, Jackson Pryor and Ben May.

The Board of Directors afterwards proceeded to organize, and went into the election of officers for the coming year, with the following result: E. W. Cole, President; John W. Thomas, Superintendent; W. A. Gleaves, Secretary and Treasurer; R. L. Bransford, Principal Bookkeeper. In addition to the above named Directors, Henry Cobia and Wm. G. Weldon represent in the Board the city of Charleston, John P. King the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company, and Wm. Bosson and Thos. H. Caldwell, Directors on the part of the State of Tennessee.

Cotton was active in Liverpool at the opening to-day; Uplands, 10½d; Orleans, 10½d; and at 1:30 p.m. was buoyant and higher; sales 8000 bales; Uplands, 10½d; Orleans, 10½d. The New York market opened quiet but firm, and closed dull and nominal; Middlings, 29½c; Orleans, 30c.

A bale or two only of low cotton were sold here at prices varying from 23 to 25c.

COTTON GINS.

COTTON GINS! COTTON GINS

E. CARVER CO.'S

Improved Gins!

THE great number of these celebrated Gins Stands in use throughout this whole country, are actual working witnesses of their acknowledged superiority. No neighborhood is without some of these splendid machines, and we make reference to each and every planter now using them as to their superior advantages over all others.

Those needing Gins will consult their best interests when they bear in mind that the "E. CARVER CO.'S IMPROVED GINS" can be had with any desired number of saws, either right or left hand motion, by calling on or sending their orders to

ALLISON BROTHERS,

Sole Agents, 270 Front St., Memphis.

Commission Merchants desiring to make purchases of Gin Stands for their customers, will find it to their advantage to call upon us. jy14 2m ALLISON BROTHERS.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Partington & Howell's, 268 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Seed Comb Gin before the war but now a planter, gives the following certificate:

MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the lints, bolls, etc., from the seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws, and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 268 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Presses and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Ginwright. G. W. TRUHEART, jy28 3aw3m&w Agent for Daniel Pratt.

EAGLE COTTON GINS.

WE are the Sole Agents for the sale of these unrivalled Gin Stands. For beauty of STAPLE, LIGHTNESS OF DRAFT, AND QUANTITY OF LINT COTTON turned out per day, they are unsurpassed. Reference can be safely made to every planter who has given them a fair trial. Where mule power is used, they make a saving of from one-quarter to one-third the draft over ANY OTHER GIN. We are also agents for STRAUB'S GRIST MILLS, and WHEELER, CLEMSON & CO.'S CIRCULAR SAWS.

SEC. 18. Be it further enacted, That it shall, in no case, be lawful for Tax Collectors to give receipt for taxes to any individual who shall have incurred either of the penalties embraced in section 17, unless said penalty is paid with the taxes, together with such costs and fees as may have legitimately accrued on same; and sworn statements, showing the exact condition of the tax books in every county, shall be made by the Tax Collectors of said county on the first days of November, December and January in every year, and the same shall be filed with the County Court Clerk, and a copy of the same shall be forwarded to the Comptroller of the Treasury.

SEC. 19. Be it further enacted, That in case any property is sold by the Tax Collector for the non-payment of taxes, costs, fees and penalty, which, at the aggregate, shall be added to an additional penalty of fifty per cent., and whether such property is purchased by individuals, by the city, or by the State for the benefit of public instruction, it shall, at no time, be redeemed by the owner therefor, except upon the payment of said principal, fees, penalty, together with the taxes, costs, fees and previous penalty attaching at the time of the advertisement of said property, and also the interest on the aggregate amount, for the time elapsing after sale.

SEC. 20. Be it further enacted, That in case property sold for taxes is not redeemed within one year from the time of sale, a further penalty of fifty per cent. shall be and the same hereby is imposed; which penalty shall attach to all previous penalties, taxes, costs, fees and interest that shall have accrued at the end of the year on the property sold; and it shall at no time thereafter be redeemed, whether sold to individuals, city or state, for the benefit of public instruction, except on full payment of all fees, penalties imposed, together with all fees and costs, and the interest on the aggregate amount of taxes, fees, costs and penalties for such time as same have accrued from the date the last penalty was imposed.

SEC. 23. Be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary, in order to carry a good and valid title to real estate sold for public taxes, that the Tax Collector should give the date and number of entry, or either, or date or number of grant, or either; or name of grantee, or number of range of section, or the name of the true owner of such real estate; but it shall only be necessary to give such description of real estate reported for non payment of public taxes as shall be necessary in order to identify the same with reasonable certainty.

BUCKEYE SALVE

—FOR THE—

CURE OF EVERY FORM

—OF—

HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT origin, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Diarrhœa and Dysentery.

The PILES, while astonishingly prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, yet realize no permanent advantage therefrom, though they have probably, perhaps, thought there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in time to come, as in the past, it will stand the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to its efficacy in their own cases, and from hearty, and we may say, voluntary testimonials, which can be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one bottle, postpaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per bottle.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

This Salve will keep in any climate for years

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most enlivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corner carved and back, handsomely carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep6 dawly
